

GIS Data Resources available in ArcGIS Online

This is not an exhaustive list, but it's a good place to start...

Service	Description	How to load data	Resources
ESRI Map Layers	Geographic, topographic, street, demographics, reference and specialty maps	Loaded directly in ArcGIS Online: Add→Browse ESRI Map Layers	http://www.esri.com/software/arcgis/arcgisonline/maps/maps-and-map-layers
Search ArcGIS Online	Anything from any source, if it's been shared publicly on ArcGIS Online	Loaded directly in ArcGIS Online: Add→Search for Layers→Select ArcGIS Online
FirstMap	Delaware's enterprise GIS for data sharing among State organizations, academia, local governments and the general public	Copy FirstMap arcgis rest service URL from https://firstmap.gis.delaware.gov/arcgis/rest/services Then load in ArcGIS Online: Add→Add Layer From Web	http://firstmap.gis.delaware.gov/ PDF Tutorial: http://firstmap.gis.delaware.gov/pdfs/public/FirstMap%20AGOL.pdf
USGS National Map	USGS, Federal and State partners host topographic/ geographic data, including orthoimagery (aerial photos), elevation, geographic names, hydrography, transportation, and land cover	Copy National Map rest service URL from http://viewer.nationalmap.gov/example/services/serviceList.html#nedviewer Then load in ArcGIS Online: Add→Add Layer From Web	The National Map: http://nationalmap.gov/index.html The National Hydrography Dataset: http://nhd.usgs.gov/index.html The National Elevation Dataset: http://ned.usgs.gov/
Delaware Environmental Monitoring & Analysis Center	Aerial photography for the nation spanning from 1937 to today.	Copy the WMS server URL from http://demac.udel.edu/data/aerial-photography Then load in ArcGIS Online: Add→Add Layer From Web→"A WMS OGC Web Service"	http://demac.udel.edu/

Visit <http://mappower.weebly.com/gis-data-resources.html> for simple tutorial videos on how to load various GIS data in ArcGIS Online.